

04.

Social Values

The fashion industry is rapidly changing, and companies are now looking to implement social values into their business strategies. For example, fashion brands have set a goal to become more sustainable by reducing the environmental impact of their production and supply chains.

www.thesourcingpartner.com